SIZE & DESCRIPTION

832± Contiguous Deeded Acres

The JR Ranch is a must-see property to truly appreciate the natural beauty of its setting as well as the pride of ownership that is evident throughout the properties 832± contiguous deeded acres. The property is cross-fenced into three pastures, constructed of four and five-wire fences. This beautiful and scenic ranch offers natural beauty and peaceful atmosphere as well as privacy and seclusion. The property is comprised of pine and cedar tree-covered ridges, and open grass land. The abundance of wildlife that frequents the ranch provides excellent opportunities for viewing and hunting and include big horn sheep, mule and whitetail deer, turkey and upland birds. The well-maintained County Road 36 travels on the south side of the property, providing year-round access.

IMPROVEMENTS

There are no improvements on the property.

MINERAL RIGHTS

Any and all mineral right owned by the Seller, if any, will be retained by the Sellers.

REAL ESTATE TAXES

According to the Banner County Treasurer's office, the real estate taxes for the JR Ranch are approximately $3,825 annually. In Nebraska, each year's tax notices are sent to property owners in October of that year with the taxes due and payable the following year; the first half by May 1st and the second half due September 1st.

RANCHING OPERATIONS

The land consists of 832± acres of heavily sodded grass with deep draws covered with pine and cedar trees throughout the northern portion of the property. The owners feel the property would support approximately 70-75 head of cow-calf pairs for summer grazing.

WATER RIGHTS

The JR Ranch is watered with two windmills, one which lies in the northwest part of the property and one in the eastern part of the property. There is a submersible well in the southern end of the grass pasture. There is ample water throughout the ranch for livestock and wildlife. Information about these wells is as follows:

- Windmill located in the northwest portion of the property.
- Windmill located in the east portion of the property.

All water wells deemed applicable to the subject property shall be included in the sale. A preliminary search on the Nebraska Department of Natural Resources website at <http://data.ndr.nebraska.gov/wells> has been completed; however, the windmills on the ranch were drilled and established prior to the required registration date for domestic and stock water wells. For more information, you may contact the North Platte Natural Resources District at 308-632-2749.

WILDLIFE AND RECREATION

With the exceptional tree-covered canyons, the JR Ranch provides an ideal habitat for a number of wildlife species. The ranch has big horn sheep as well as mule deer and whitetail deer traveling in from the surrounding hay fields that find shelter in the deep canyons. In addition, several foxes, coyotes, bobcats, porcupines, raccoons, rabbits, and antelope can be found on the property. Outdoor activities such as hiking, rock climbing, biking, cross-country skiing and snowmobiling are all possible on the ranch. For the outdoor enthusiast, the JR Ranch has it all.

The Wildcat Hills State Recreation Area is located just minutes from the property. Key features include a Nature Center, Shooting Sports Complex, overnight camping and a vast system of trails. The park is situated high on a rocky escarpment and offers extraordinary views of the North Platte River Valley. There are many attractions to the park including birdwatching, camping, exceptional hiking trails, and wildlife viewing. For the hunting enthusiast, the Wildcat Hills Wildlife Management area is nearby and offers hunting opportunities. Visit <https://outdoornebraska.gov/location/wildcat-hills/>

Close proximity to the Rocky Mountains and the front range of Colorado, as well as the cities of Scottsbluff NE, Cheyenne WY, and Denver CO, affords one the opportunity to experience all that cities have to offer while maintaining the western way of life.

COMMUNITY AMENITIES

Gering, Nebraska: Gering, Nebraska, population 8,560, is one of the closest towns to the JR Ranch. Gering, Nebraska is a small community with great people and lies at the foot of the Oregon Trail landmark Scotts Bluff National Monument. A community that invites you to raise your family, retire, or just get away from it all. With the Wildcat Hills as a backdrop, Gering is a picturesque community. It has many amenities that make it welcoming to its population including a great school system, senior center, swimming pool and golf course.

Scottsbluff, Nebraska: Scottsbluff, Nebraska, population 15,309, is approximately a half hour from the JR Ranch, and also offers medical facilities, a good school system, Western Nebraska Community College, theaters, restaurants, several banks and retail stores, shopping malls and centers, golf course, and the Western Nebraska Regional Airport. For additional information regarding Scottsbluff and the surrounding area, log on to www.city-data.com/Scottsbluff-Nebraska.htm.

Torrington, Wyoming: Torrington, Wyoming, population 6,120, is the county seat of Goshen County, Wyoming and offers medical facilities, a K-12 school system, Eastern Wyoming Community College, theater, restaurants, several banks and retail stores, golf course, a nationally-ranked livestock sale barn, and farm and implement dealerships.

Cheyenne, Wyoming: On July 4th, 1867 the first settlers pitched their tents in what is now known as Cheyenne. The first residents moved to the area to work on the Union Pacific Railroad. By 1869, soldiers from Fort D.A. Russell (which is now F.E. Warren Air Force Base) and Camp Carlin combined with the railroad gangs to make up the majority of Cheyenne's population. Today, Cheyenne is not only the state capitol of Wyoming, but is also the seat of Laramie County, the home of F.E. Warren Air Force Base, and of Laramie County Community College, most recently named as the #1 digital savvy midsize community college in the nation.

Cheyenne is strategically located at the intersection of I-80 and I-25 as well as at the crossroads of the Union Pacific and Burlington Northern Railroads. This has made Cheyenne a major transportation hub and an important center of commerce both in the Rocky Mountain Region and nationally. Many consider Cheyenne to be the northern anchor city of the Front Range of the Rocky Mountains. Cheyenne is also home to the world's largest outdoor rodeo and western celebration, Cheyenne Frontier Days. Held annually in the last full week in July, Frontier Days is a ten-day celebration of the western heritage that consists of professional rodeos, concerts, art shows, carnival, parades, and air show featuring the US Air Force Thunderbirds.

Cheyenne accounts for approximately 53,000 of the 82,400 Laramie County residents. In addition to the jobs created by the State of Wyoming, Laramie County, local government, and F.E. Warren Air Force Base, Cheyenne has also used its close proximity to the Colorado Front Range to create a thriving business environment. Now known as the Magic City of the Plains, Cheyenne still continues its strong ties to agriculture and its western roots. For more information on Cheyenne please visit: <http://www.cheyenne.org>.

STATE OF NEBRASKA

Nebraska is a state that lies in both the Great Plains and the Midwestern United States. Its state capital is Lincoln and its largest city is Omaha, which is on the Missouri River. Nebraska is a state that prides itself on "The Good Life" living environment.

The state is crossed by many historic trails, and was explored by the Lewis and Clark Expedition. The California

Gold Rush brought the first large numbers of non-indigenous settlers to the area. Nebraska became a state in 1867.

The climate has wide variations between winter and summer temperatures, and violent thunderstorms can be commonplace. The state is ideal for cattle-grazing and is a major producer of beef, as well as pork, corn, and soybeans.

The largest ancestry group claimed by Nebraskans is German American. The state also has the largest per capita population of Czech Americans among U.S. states.

Nebraska has a progressive income tax. Nebraska has a state sales and use tax of 5.5%. Some Nebraska cities assess a city sale and use tax, in 0.5% increments, up to a maximum of 1.5%. All real property within the state of Nebraska is taxable unless specifically exempted by statute. Since 1992, only depreciable personal property is subject to tax and all other personal property is exempt from tax. Inheritance tax is collected at the county level.
